

The document you are trying to find no longer exists and we can no longer accept reports using copies of this document. Please see our Image and text policy for more information.

What should I do if my image or text is being used by another member?

When you create a listing or product page you give eBay and its members permission, through our user agreement, to use your images and product details. Your content may be added to the eBay product catalog, and may be used by other sellers in their eBay listings.